

CHRIST KING SCHOOL

BELONGING • GENEROSITY • INDEPENDENCE • MASTERY

Significant highlights, awards, and recognitions illustrate some of the ways Christ King School exemplifies Excellence in Education.

All teachers trained in classroom Smart Board use with students

Two thirds of the staff are CPR and defibulator trained

Middle School literature teacher was granted Kohl's Award

Fifth grade teacher chosen to participate in the Holocaust project with the Jewish Community Project

Fifth grade student's art piece was published in Highlights magazine

Student scores are above both the National and Archdiocese averages in recent ITBS tests

Entire team of seven students in forensics brought back red and blue ribbons in their first year of competition (2009)

Three fourths of the Middle School students are on the quarterly academic or effort honor rolls

2009 graduate awarded monetary scholarship to Pius High School for artistic ability

Christ King graduates were Valedictorian and Salutatorian for DSHA High School Class of 2009

80% of Christ King graduates in the last four years attend Catholic High Schools.

A 2009 graduate placed 4th out of 50 in a recent, worldwide Irish Dance competition. She is the top Irish dancer in North America in her age category

Five former, recent graduates are active in the youth group of the parish and are leaders as youth representatives on the Parish Council

Eighth grade girls and boys basketball A teams have been invited to the Padre Serra tournament for the last eight years. These same teams have been invited to the prestigious Seton Volleyball tournaments for the last three years

Leadership awards presented to former graduates at local high schools within the last four years